

Family Ties
A Compilation of Baseball's Relatives
2019 – End of Season
Players with MLB Debut in 2019

About the Family Ties List

Who's included in the list

- Players making their major league debut in 2019 who had a relative currently or formerly in professional baseball.

Other notes about the contents of the list

- Players in green-colored font were major leaguers in 2019.
- Players in red-colored font were major leaguers prior to 2019.
- Players in black font have not appeared in the major leagues.
- In some cases, a Relative had a role as a Non-Player, in which case the Non-Player's role, level and organization are also shown. "Non-players" refers to managers, coaches, scouts, owners, executives, umpires, broadcasters, front office and other.
- When an asterisk appears with Relative's Last Year as A Player, it indicates the MLB draft year of the player, but he did not actually sign with the organization that year.
- Relative's Current Role Level indicates majors (MLB) or minors (MiLB).

Richard Cuicchi's book, Family Ties: A Comprehensive Collection of Facts and Trivia About Baseball's Relatives, (<http://thetenthinning.com/booksreviews.html>) compiled over 3,500 players, coaches, managers, scouts, executives, owners, broadcasters, and umpires who had family relationships in baseball through 2011.

"Baseball's Relatives" (<http://baseballrelatives.wordpress.com/>) is a website specifically devoted to emerging stories, new information, and expert commentary about the many family ties in baseball. It extends the Family Ties book with annually updated information. The site is sponsored by TheTenthInning.com.
