Players with MLB Debut in 2020

About the Family Ties List

Who's included in the list

- Players making their major league debut in 2020 who had a relative currently or formerly in professional baseball.
- It should be noted the 2020 season was limited to 60 games due to the COVID-19 pandemic, thus fewer players made their debut than in seasons with full 162-game schedules.

Other notes about the contents of the list

- Players in green-colored font were major leaguers in 2020.
- Players in red-colored font were major leaguers prior to 2020.
- Players in black font have not appeared in the major leagues.
- In some cases, a Relative had a role as a Non-Player, in which case the Non-Player's role, level and organization are also shown. "Non-players" refers to managers, coaches, scouts, owners, executives, umpires, broadcasters, front office and other.
- When an asterisk appears with Relative's Last Year as A Player, it indicates the MLB draft year of the player, but he did not actually sign with the organization that year.
- Relative's Current Role Level indicates majors (MLB) or minors (MiLB).
